

Before you begin:

- 1. Navigate to the remote lab portal, and copy the Machine ID
- 2. Make sure you connect your home computer to York's VPN service

Get started:

- 1. In the search bar at the bottom left of your desktop, type Remote Desktop Connection
- 2. Select the Remote Desktop Connection app

All Apps Documents Email Web	o More	2 - 30 😮 🖗
Best match
Remote Desktop Connection		<2 ➡
Settings	_	Remote Desktop Connection
H Require Network Level Authentication for Remote Desktop	>	Арр
Search the web		T •
Remote desktop connection - See web results	>	 Open Run as administrator
10000		Den file location
		-🏳 Pin to Start
		-🏳 Pin to taskbar
Remote desktop connection

- 3. Once the Remote Desktop Connection tool launches, take your work computer's name and add "yorku.yorku.ca" to it, then enter that into the Computer field.
 - a. For example, if your work computer name is sc-labs-ga04, the value you'd enter into the Computer field would be sc-labs.ga04.yorku.yorku.ca

4. Click Connect

- 5. Once you're connected, a popup will appear. Click on More Choices
- 6. Next, select Use a Different Account
- 7. In the username field, type: yorku[your Passport York username]. Example: Jon Snow would type: yorku\jsnow
- 8. In the Password field, enter your Passport York password

	Windows Security		\times
	Enter your credentials
	These credentials will be used to connect to uit-m-cts	temp6.
	yorkuʻ\pyusername 🛛 🗙 🗲	7
	Password	8
	Domain: yorku	-
	Remember me
5	More choices
	yorku		L
6	Use a different account		J
	OK Cancel

9. Click OK

Your home computer is now connected to your work computer!